

Contents.

10th Plenary Meeting European ISDN User Forum Berlin 22 - 24 May 1995

Sessions

- The early days of ISDN in Germany 7
- Multi-Services Communication 8
- Multimedia Market Trends and Business Applications 9
- EIUF Task Force Information Society (TF-IS) 10
- SURFnet/Internet access through ISDN 11
- New IMIMG Memorandum of Understanding 12
- ETSI Presentation 13
- Project Introduction: "Linking Education and Disability" (LEAD) 14
- ISDN - What about Users and Uses? 15
- A picture says more than thousand words, ISDN in the horticultural industry 16
- The United Databank 17
- Telecommunication services in Poland 18
- Introduction of new Telecommunication services in Hungary 19
- Building and loan associations and ISDN networking - BHW Hameln 20
- ISDN LAN-LAN and PC-LAN in IBM environment 21
- Advanced ISDN-based Computing Center Services (ERIK) 22
- Interactive Multimedia Conferencing Session 23
- Applying Interactive Multimedia in Business 24
- High Performance ISDN Internetworking in multinational Networks 25
- Novell Netware CAPI Manager - Hardware independent Integration of ISDN 26
- The RISC/6000 Way to utilize ISDN 27
- ISDN, a natural pathway to Packet Data Networks 28
- Interworking: X.25 and ISDN 29
- Versit-Computer-Telephonie-Integration 30
- Multipoint Videoconferencing 31
- The Multimedia Teleschool 32
- The transition from ISDN to ATM networks 33
- ISDN/ATM Interworking 34
- Multimedia Tele-Services in ISDN and ATM Networks 35
- The Application of Euro-ISDN in Small to Medium Sized Enterprises (SMES) 36
- EPHOS takes the ISDN/PABXs challenge 37
- The Personal Conferencing Working Group (PSWG) and its role in the establishment of standards for PC based communications 38
- The role of the International Multimedia Teleconferencing Consortium (IMTC) in the development of a multimedia Application Programming Interface (APT) 39
- Networked Multimedia using ISDN and other technologies like ATM 40